21 EXPLANATION

22 This bill amends provisions affecting the agricultural 23 development authority (Code chapter 175), which is organized as 24 an independent self-funding agency charged to provide economic 25 assistance to farmers. The authority is controlled by a 26 board of 10 members, including nine members appointed by the 27 governor and the treasurer of state who serves as an ex officio
28 nonvoting member.

29 The bill provides that the authority is to be housed within 30 the department of agriculture and land stewardship, and the 31 secretary replaces the treasurer of state as the ex officio
32 nonvoting member.
